MADE IN MAADI · BUILT AROUND YOU

WHAT IS WADDY

A Delivery Platform Built Only for Maadi.

Customers open Waddy and see restaurants, cafés, grocery and pet shops from their own streets. We run the app, the marketing and the riders.

WHY WADDY

1. Maadi first
   Customers see businesses near them, not the whole city.
2. We promote your branch
   Our advertising is for Maadi, and for the branch that serves Maadi.
3. Riders who only work four areas
   Degla, Sarayat, Nerco and Corniche. Short, familiar routes mean faster deliveries.

Big apps list your business. Waddy helps your neighborhood discover it.

THE PROBLEM

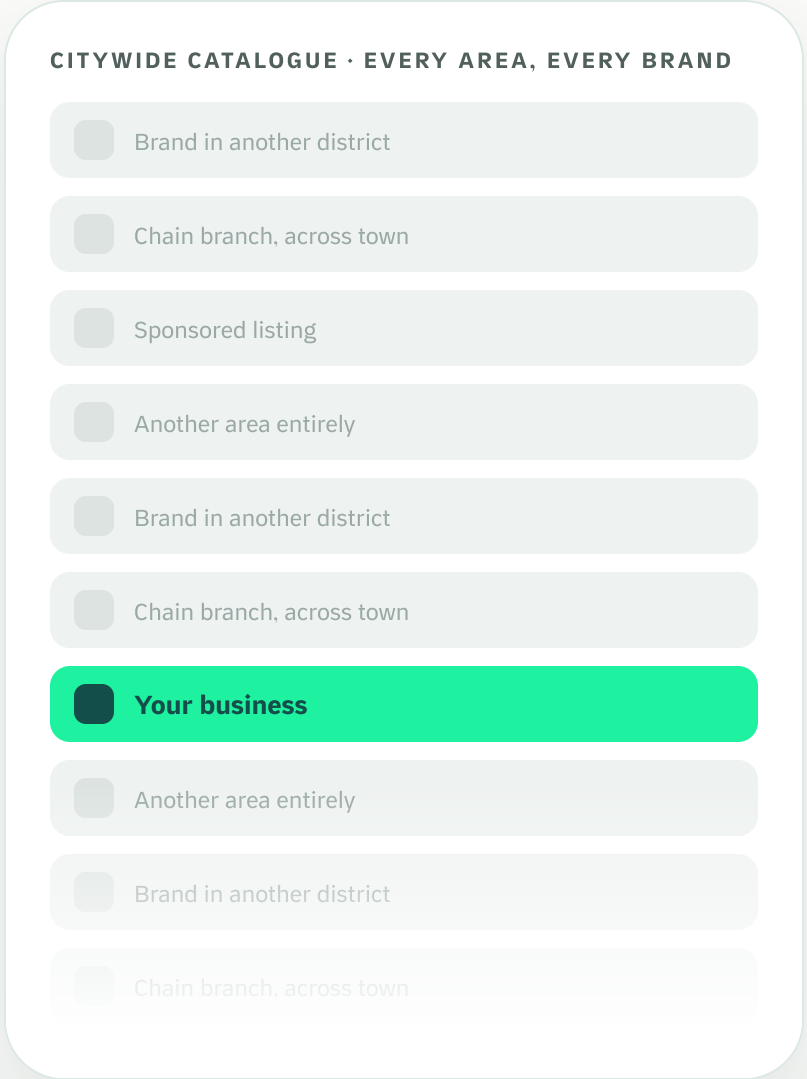

Your Business Deserves More Than Another Listing.

A marketplace that covers a whole city is built for breadth. That structure creates real challenges for a business whose customers live a few streets away.

01 A much larger catalogue to compete in
Your listing shares attention with brands from every district.

02 Advertising in a crowded room
Promotion has to be heard above everyone else's.

03 Little room for a neighborhood identity
It is hard to become "our local place" inside a citywide list.

THE WADDY DIFFERENCE

Big Marketplace Thinking vs. Neighborhood-First Growth.

	Citywide marketplace model	Waddy: neighborhood-first
Discovery	Customers browse a catalogue that spans many areas.	Customers browse businesses relevant to where they live.
Promotion	Spend goes on the platform and big brands across the whole city.	Waddy advertises in Maadi only.
Local brand	Limited room to build a distinct neighborhood identity.	Partners can become familiar names in their own neighborhood.
Branches	Promotion is usually brand-level: it promotes the chain, not its Maadi branch.	Waddy promotes the Maadi branch to Maadi customers.
Delivery	Fleets cover the whole city.	Waddy's riders cover four areas: Degla, Sarayat, Nerco and Corniche.
Repeat orders	Loyalty belongs mostly to the marketplace as a whole.	Rewards, weekly quests and scratch cards are built around local habits.
Commission	What you pay on your current apps.	Compare what you pay today with what we offer.

This page compares two business models. It describes structural differences and is not a statement about any particular company.

WHERE THE EXTRA ORDERS COME FROM

Four Sources of Orders On Top of Today's.

1

New Maadi customers who find you

People nearby who didn't know you, finding you in local discovery and in Waddy's Maadi campaigns.

2

Repeat orders

XP, weekly quests, scratch cards and one-tap reorder bring the same customers back.

3

Delivery without a rider team

Customers beyond walking distance can order. Our riders bring it to them.

4

Optional paid visibility

When you want more, sponsored placements put you at the top of the screen.

Waddy is non-exclusive, so these are orders on top of the ones you already get. How many depends on your business; we will show you the real count at your 30-day review.

FOR BRANDS WITH MORE THAN ONE BRANCH

Your Maadi Branch Gets Priority.

One brand. Multiple branches. Your neighborhood comes first. Whether you have one location or twenty, Waddy is built around the branch that serves the customer's neighborhood. Big apps tend to promote the brand, not your Maadi branch.

1. A brand with several branches
   Maadi, New Cairo, Heliopolis, Zamalek, Sheikh Zayed.
2. The customer opens Waddy in Maadi
   Waddy shows the marketplace for that neighborhood.
3. The Maadi branch is the one they see
   A dedicated branch presence, with local promotions.
4. The order goes to the right branch
   Prepared and delivered by the branch that serves them.

Priority means local-branch relevance and designated visibility for Maadi customers. It is not a guaranteed ranking position. Other branches join as Waddy opens in their areas.

3 · DELIVER

We Deliver.
You Focus on Your Business.

Extend your reach without building and managing a rider team of your own.

Waddy's own riders
They only work Degla, Sarayat, Nerco and Corniche: short, familiar routes.

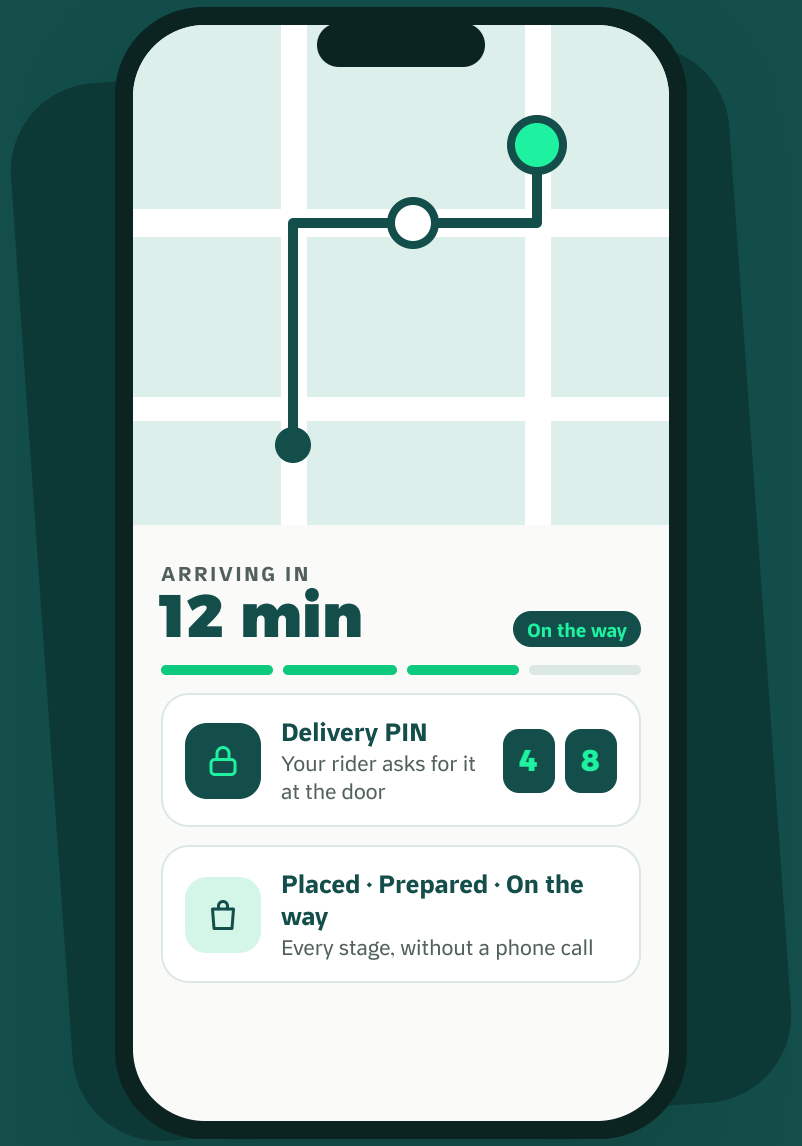

Live tracking for the customer
A live map and ETA, so they watch the order instead of calling you.

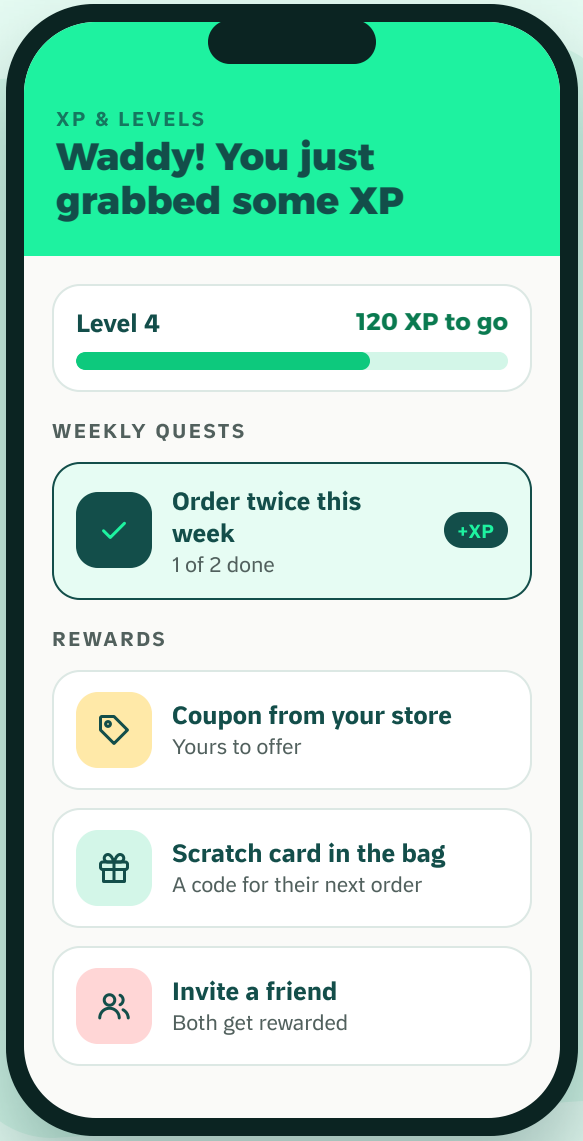

A delivery PIN at the door
The rider asks for it, so the order reaches the right person.

Cash handled for you
Riders collect cash on delivery; it is included in your payout (page 06).

Weekly quests
Challenges that bring people back to the app within the week.

Scratch cards
A printed code in the bag that turns one order into a reason for the next.

BUILT FOR GROCERY · ONLY ON WADDY

Ripe Today, or Ripe Thursday. Salad, or Sauce.

Nobody trusts a stranger to pick their tomatoes. Waddy asks the question a good greengrocer asks across the counter, before the item reaches the cart.

Ripeness, on fruit
Ready to eat today, or ripe in 2–3 days.

Use it for, on vegetables
For salad: firm and crisp. For cooking: riper and softer.

Only where it is needed
Fruit and vegetables ask. Milk and rice ask nothing, so shopping stays fast.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOU

Customers trust you with fresh produce online, and fresh is what fills a weekly basket.

BUILT FOR GROCERY · ON YOUR SIDE OF THE COUNTER

One Question for Them. Zero Guessing for You.

The customer's answer travels with the item, all the way to whoever picks the order in your store.

Written on the order line

"Bananas · Ripe in 2–3 days." The instruction sits next to the item it belongs to.

Never touches price or stock

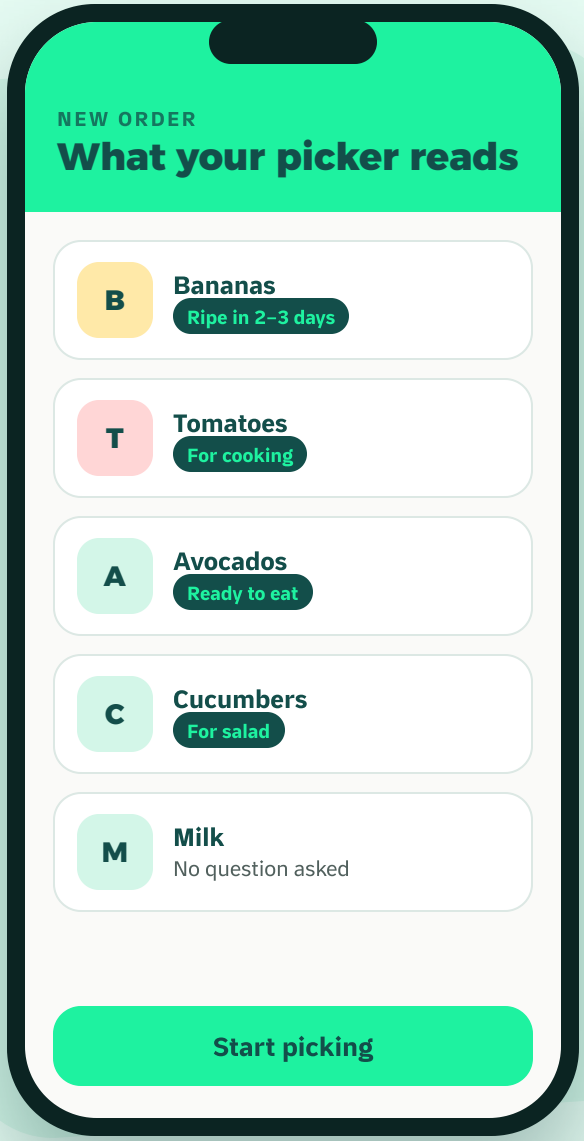

It is a picking note, not a new product. Nothing extra to manage in your catalogue.

Sell the whole crate

Softer produce goes to the cooks who want it instead of staying on the shelf.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR YOU

Fewer complaints and refunds for you, and less waste on your shelf.
